

Certificate of Non-Membership of the Czech Medical Chamber

The Certificate of non-membership is provided by the Czech Medical Chamber - Česká lékařská komora (ČLK). Find out at first if this certificate is needed in a particular country where you want to work. For the application it is necessary to submit a filled application form and a (non-verified) copy of the Diploma.

The Certificate of non-membership is an equivalent to the Certificate of good standing provided to the graduates of the faculty of medicine when seeking a job abroad. This request is completed by the applicant / medical graduate who studied in the Czech Republic, but has never been a member of the CMC and thus has never practiced in the treatment and preventive care in the Czech Republic. Certificate of non-membership, which is on the basis of this request is issued, serves as the equivalent of a certificate of professional clean record of a doctor - a member of the CMC (Certificate of good standing).

To obtain the certificate of non-membership, it is needed to provide a copy of diploma and pay the administrative fee of 1000,- CZK (GM), reps. 600,- CZK (DY).

It is possible to apply in two ways:

1. Personally It is necessary to submit an application form filled and a copy (non-verified) of your diploma. The fee is paid at the cash desk of ČLK and the procedure is faster. ČLK - Česká lékařská komora Lékařská 2/291 150 00 Praha 5
